

PERSONAL PROPERTY POLICY

PURPOSE

To explain Glenallen School's policy in relation to personal property and to ensure that special or valuable items of personal property are not brought to school.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all school activities, including camps and excursions.

POLICY

- Glenallen School understands that staff and/or students may sometimes like to bring items of personal property to school.
- The Department of Education and Training does not have insurance for personal property of staff, students and visitors. Glenallen School does not take responsibility for items of personal property that are lost, stolen or damaged at school or during school activities. Damage to personal property brought to school is the responsibility of the owner of that property.
- Glenallen School encourages staff and students not to bring items of value to school, or to obtain appropriate insurance for such items.
- If students bring items of value to school, they will be held and stored securely at in a locked cupboard in the student's classroom J:\Glenallen School Manual\Policies\Current Policies\Privacy Policy .docx until the end of the day, when the items may be collected by the student and/or parent.

COMMUNICATION

This policy will be communicated to our school community in the following ways:

- Available publicly on school website
- Included in staff induction processes
- Hard copy available from school administration upon request
